SYNOPSIS

In 2021 more than 7 million people attended an Australian Rules Football Game whilst millions more watch from their loungerooms around the world.

In Australia, AFL is not just a sport, it's a religion. It can divide the nation, it can divide a state and it can divide a household. And for the diehard fan, the ultimate pilgrimage is the long march to the MCG on that last day in September – the holy grail of sport in our nation the Grand Final.

Join us on this series as we follow 8 diehard fans and follow the heartache, the tears and the celebrations of finals football as they watch their team strive for the ultimate prize – the 2022 AFL Premiership Cup.
